Morning Worship

March 24, 2019

Reflection — The bread of sorrows is sometimes the saint's daily bread; our Master himself was a man of sorrows. It is a common temptation, when trouble lasts long, to think that it will last always. [In Psalm 13] the mind of the despondent worshipper rises above all its distressing fears, and throws itself, without reserve, on the mercy and care of its Divine Redeemer. See the power of faith, and how good it is to draw near to God. God's mercy is the support of the psalmist's faith. Finding I have that to trust to, I am comforted, though I have no merit of my own. His faith in God's mercy filled his heart with joy in his salvation; for joy and peace come by believing. By faith he was as confident of salvation, as if it had been completed already. In this way believers pour out their prayers, renouncing all hopes but in the mercy of God through the Savior's blood...

Approach to God

Welcome — Pastor Francis VanDelden

Prelude

Call to Worship — Psalm 22:1-2, Matthew 27:45-46

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

² O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer,
and by night, but I find no rest.

⁴⁵ Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁶ And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

Prayer of Adoration

Songs of Praise — Sing to the Lord a New Song (Psalm 149)

Sing to the Lord a new song, His praise in the assembly of saints.
Israel, rejoice in your Maker; People of Zion be glad in your King.
Praise His name with dancing and make music to Him
With tambourine and harp.

*Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Praise our God! Hallelujah! Praise his name!*

For the Lord delights in his people;
He crowns the humble with salvation.
Let the saints rejoice in this honor and sing for joy on their beds.

Affirmation of Faith — Romans 8:18-39

¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. ¹⁹ For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to corruption and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²² For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. ²³ And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴ For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

²⁶ Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. ²⁷ And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. ²⁸ And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.

³⁰ And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.

³¹ What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? ³³ Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. ³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ³⁶ As it is written,
“For your sake we are being killed all the day long;
we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.”

³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹ nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Response in Song — All Glory be Forever

We had turned from God to sin's disgrace, We chose the path to hell
Perfect law of God condemned our race, For all in Adam fell
But the righteousness of God appeared
And the world found hope again
For the Righteous One has come down to bear
All the curse of sin and death

*Now to Him Who's seated on the throne, All glory be forever
Oh, the depths of wisdom, grace, and power
All glory be forever, All glory be forever*

Every bond of sin that held us fast Is left in Jesus' grave
We've been freed from all that gripped our past
From Satan's rule and reign
We've been raised to life to breathe His grace
As captives now reclaimed all our guilt is gone, all our strivings ceased we're alive to seek His fame (chorus)

Now our future's fixed, our journey clear, God will not let us go
Every trial that tempts our hearts to fear He'll use to give us hope
All creation groans as we await what our eyes have longed to see
Every pain and evil we've long endured
Will be crushed by Christ our King

All That I Am I Owe to Thee

All that I am I owe to thee;
Thy wisdom, Lord, has fashioned me.
I give my Maker thankful praise,
Whose wondrous works my soul amaze.

Ere into being I was brought,
Thine eye did see, and in thy thought
My life in all its perfect plan
Was ordered ere my days began.

Thy thoughts, O God, how manifold,
More precious unto me than gold!
I muse on their infinity,
Awaking I am still with thee.

The wicked thou wilt surely slay;
From me let sinners turn away.
They speak against the name divine;
I count God's enemies as mine.

Search me, O God, my heart discern;
Try me, my inmost thought to learn;
And lead me, if in sin I stray,
To choose the everlasting way.

Sermon Text — Psalm 13

How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever?

How long will you hide your face from me?

² How long must I take counsel in my soul
and have sorrow in my heart all the day?

How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

³ Consider and answer me, O LORD my God;
light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,

⁴ lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him,"
lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.

⁵ But I have trusted in your steadfast love;
my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.

⁶ I will sing to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Sermon — How Long, O Lord?

Closing Songs

Whate'er My God Ordains is Right

Whate'er my God ordains is right: His holy will abideth;
I will be still whate'er He doth; And follow where He guideth.
He is my God: though dark my road.
He holds me that I shall not fall.
And so to Him I leave it all, He holds me that I shall not fall.

Whate'er my God ordains is right: He never will deceive me.
He leads me by the proper path; I know He will not leave me.
I take, content, what He hath sent.
His hand can turn my griefs away,
And patiently I wait His day, His hand can turn my griefs away.

Whate'er my God ordains is right, Though now this cup I'm drinking,
May bitter seem to my faint heart, I take it all, unshrinking.
My God is true; each morn anew.
Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart,
And pain and sorrow shall depart, Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart.

Whate'er my God ordains is right. Here shall my stand be taken.
Though sorrow, need, or death be mine, Yet I am not forsaken.
My Father's care is round me there.
He holds me that I shall not fall,
And so to Him I leave it all,
He holds me that I shall not fall.

DAILY DEVOTION

Memory Verse: Romans 6:18 — ¹⁷ But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, ¹⁸ and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness.

Westminster Larger Catechism 27: Wherein did Christ's humiliation consist? Christ's humiliation consisted in his being born, and that in a low condition, made under the law, undergoing the miseries of this life, the wrath of God, and the cursed death of the cross; in being buried, and continuing under the power of death for a time.

Monday: How does Ps 13 invite you to be frank with God? What is the believer's expectation about God's face/presence (v 1, Num 6:24-26, Ps 11:7, 17:15, 27:4). What is David's problem in v 1, and how is he feeling? Can you relate to this? Think about others who may be groaning like this. Groan to the Lord in prayer (Rom 8:23).

Tuesday: Ps 13:2. What is the inner struggle for David in v 2? What kinds of things give you anxiety, fear, worry, or turn over and over in your mind? What kinds of enemies could v 2 refer to (1 Pet 5:8, Jn 15:19, Rom 7:23)? Spend some time lamenting these things (for you and others) before the Lord. Peak at Rom 8:22-24.

Wednesday: How do vv 3-4 pick up the 3 struggles of vv 1-2? How does David argue with God in prayer (plead God's character, promises, give good reasons for God to answer him)? Think about how you can strengthen specific prayer requests this way, and then pray this way (perhaps use the Lord's Prayer as a basis for argumentation, or Ps 103).

Thursday: What is faith's anchor in Ps 13:5a? This "steadfast love" is God's covenant love. Read about its commitment, endurance, depth, and fulfillment (Ex 34:5-7, 10; Ps 103:17, Eph 3:17-19, Jn 15:13 and Lk 22:20). Although it does not stop all groaning and tears, how does this anchor strengthen and steady you in "how long" times (Rom 8: 31-39, Lam 3:21-24)?

Friday: Salvation in v 5 is likely when vv 3-4 are answered. What does "dealt bountifully" say about God? When is the ultimate fulfillment of "dealt bountifully"? The "shall rejoice" and "will sing" can be taken as future (after salvation is received), or as a wish (let me rejoice). As you ponder this Psalm, and especially God's steadfast love, what response is God calling from you?

Saturday: Pray for the Spirit's powerful work through the preaching of Rom 7:7-12 tomorrow.
